

Community Group Opportunities

New community groups of all shapes and sizes are forming regularly at 2BC!
You can join any of the groups below at 2bcliberty.org/community-groups.
You can also email (info@2bcliberty.org) or call the church office 816-781-2824.

Sunday Lunch Bunch

Following 11 a.m. Worship

This group gathers after worship in the Welcome Center and picks a restaurant for lunch! Look for Harold and Gwen Phillips, Steve Hemphill, or Bill and Becky Gossett. No sign up necessary; just meet us in the Welcome Center!

Women's Bible Study Group

Tuesdays | 10:00 a.m. | Oak Room

Led by Diane Roberts

Our Women's Bible Study Group meets weekly and studies a variety of faith topics. New members are welcome!

2BC Book Club

Welcome Center

Led by Christy Edwards and Jennifer Dilts

Calling all book lovers! Our 2BC Book club meets monthly to discuss that month's book selection.

Connections

Led by Greg Duncan

Connections is a series of four Sunday morning sessions for those who want to discover more about Second Baptist and how to make meaningful connections here at 2BC. If you are new to 2BC, this is the class for you! The dates for the next class are not set yet. If you're interested in attending the next class, call the office at 781-2824 or email info@2bcliberty.org and we'll add your name to our list and be sure to send you information when the dates are set.

Personal Flourishing Classes

William Jewell Center for Faith & Culture

We are a partner church with The Center for Faith & Culture. The Center hosts a variety of Personal Flourishing Classes through the fall, winter, and spring, and all are free to us at 2BC because of our partnership with the Center. For a complete class list, visit: www.jewell.edu/about/center-faith-and-culture/personal-flourishing-classes

Use the code "Second" to get free registration.

Sunday Morning Bible Study Groups

A variety of opportunities for adult Bible study groups are available on Sunday mornings. These groups meet from 10:00-10:45. If you would like help getting connected with a group, contact the church office at 816-781-2824 or info@2bcliberty.org, or sign up online at www.2bcliberty.org/community-groups.

Our children and students also have weekly Bible study from 10:00-10:45 on Sunday mornings. Children in kindergarten through fifth grade meet on the fourth floor. Children in PreK and younger meet on the second floor. Our middle and high school students meet in the Student Room on the sixth floor.

Charis Community Group

Room 411

Rotating leadership by class members

This group is primarily made up of people with elementary, middle, and high school-aged children. However, anyone is definitely welcome! We study a variety of Biblical and faith topics throughout the year.

Milton Horne's Class

Via Zoom

Led by Milton Horne

This group consists of persons interested in Christian faith as it encounters contemporary culture. We read books on topics ranging from theology to economics, from comparative religion to science, with a view to processing such ideas through the eyes of informed faith.

The Potter's Wheel

Room 606

Rotating leadership by class member

Our class name reflects our belief that we are all still in formation. We base our discussion and exploration on the texts appointed by the Christian Lectionary. Most of our members are in their 30's, 40's, or 50's, but adults of any age are welcome. We are a warm and supportive group, and we also meet outside class a few times each year for social gatherings.

Soul Food

Assembly Room

Led by Connie McNeill

Soul Food is a community group of Bible study and growing friendships. Our curriculum is the Bible and the conversations that happen around the tables. We always have delicious refreshments and laugh out loud throughout the hour.

The Seekers Class

Room 415

Rotating leadership by class members

The Seekers Class seeks to grow in understanding and applying scripture, increasing our outreach to others, and building community. We use the Baptists Today Bible study material. Most of us are middle-aged couples and singles. We begin with the Bible study material, including plenty of—sometimes vigorous—discussion. At 10:30, we begin a time of sharing.

The Tanner Class

Tutt Chapel

Led by Blane Baker

The Tanner Class is an engaged group that enjoys discussion and dialogue. We use the Baptists Today material to provide background for each lesson. Conversations then emerge, and we generally explore how Bible study impacts our daily lives. The group is composed mostly of retired persons.

Winepress

Room 410

Led by Jeff Langford

The Winepress Class examines biblical texts, poses questions, and explores cultural and personal viewpoints as we seek to connect more deeply with Christ. Each week, we'll try to apply what we've learned from the scriptures and each other. All are welcome, no matter your age, background, or level of biblical knowledge.
